Dominique is a one of a kind jewelry designer located in Le Marais. Inspired by the crafty side from her seamstress grandmother, she decided to follow her path to create something for the people. After working in different workshops and creating here the independent line of jewelry, she opened her boutique in Le Marais. Dominique creates timeless pieces for her customers. Dominique personally says that she is inspired by many different things. Sometimes it can be the daily poetic details, the beauty of nature. Either way, she always tries to create unique pieces that are authentic for her clients by putting her know-how and passion for her work.
